Sermon Notes – How Do We Know What Love Is?

2 Corinthians 6:11-7:1 | Paul gives his readers three marks of true love: sharing hearts together, separating from evil, and perfecting the family quality of holiness.

- A. Love is a ____-way street (6:11-13)
1. ____ speech
 2. ____ hearts
 3. ____ exchange
- B. Love is a ____-way street (6:14-16b)
1. ____ alliance
 2. ____ with darkness
 3. ____ with evil
 4. ____ with idols
- C. Love is fulfilled in ____ (6:16c-7:1)
1. ____ resemblance
 2. Separating from the ____
 3. Perfecting ____

What is your next step in the fair exchange of separating from the world's values and joining the values of God's family?

Reflection & Discussion

1. What has aided your love relationships in being fair exchanges?
2. Why do relationships have to be a fair exchange rather than unreturned love?
3. When have you felt the conflict of being in non-harmony with the world's values?
4. What did Egypt and Assyria (Is. 52:1-12, Ez. 20:30-44) have to do with the statements "come out from them," "be separate," and "touch no evil thing?"
5. Verse 18 references 2 Samuel 7:11c-16. How could this be of comfort to King David and the Corinthians?
6. What is our goal and motive in the Christian life (7:1)?

Q. Who was the greatest comedian in the Bible?

A Church or Business? (Part 2)

Article by Roger Yee

Last Sunday you read Part 1 about what Amy does behind the scenes at Journey to keep the lights on. So what do I do?

I oversee the church's background security compliance program for our volunteers and staff who work with youth and children, manage the church payroll and employee health and pension benefits program, manage the church's liability insurance, oversee our compliance with the Fire Authority and state and local government requirements for maintaining our non-profit status, and develop the annual budget

Amy and I also take care of ordering and maintaining the church's office supplies and services, communion supplies, oversee our utility and data and voice service providers, as well as meet with contractors as needed.

That all sounds like a lot of business functions, so to get back to our original question from last Sunday's Part 1, is Journey a church or a business?

Well, the answer is: it's a little bit of both.

We are a business, but we're in God's business of saving souls. In most businesses, the customer is king, but in ours, Christ is King.

In the office, with all of these financial, management, and compliance transactions taking place, we strive to make sure that we always make the best use of the time, funding and resources that God has blessed Journey with and steward God's house as best as we can so His business can be run as efficiently as possible.

If you are interested in reserving a room/facility on the church campus for ministry or other use, please first check the church website:
<https://www.journeyec.org/calendar>

If the room or facility is open for the date and time that you are interested, please email both Amy Mu AND Roger Yee at amy@journeyec.org AND roger@journeyec.org respectively and someone will follow-up with you. We're in the office on Tuesday mornings and the rest of the week by appointment.

Please come by and say "hi" if you're in the neighborhood!

After service, please stay for refreshments and fellowship.
