My Grace is Sufficient 2 Corinthians 12:1-10

Paul's silence over his heavenly revelation is broken only by this boast in his weakness. The result was Christ's power resting on him and working through him.

Here are Paul's "visionary" principles:

- 1. Not e _____, but e _____ (12:1-5)
- 2. Not e _____ self, but e _____ God (12:6-9)
- 3. Not t _____, but t _____ (12:10)

God's denial of Paul's (short-sighted) request turned out to be for Paul's greater good because it was to God's (far-sighted) glory.

My grace is sufficient for _____(your name)_____ for my power is made perfect in _____(your weakness)_____.

Reflection & Discussion

- 1. About what might you be tempted to boast?
- 2. How might Paul have become conceited if his request was answered?
- 3. Does God allow messengers of Satan to torment believers?
- 4. Why did it take Paul three times of pleading?

Q. What kind of man was Boaz before he got married?

A Civil War Soldier's Prayer

By Elder Ron Jue

I read this story about a civil war soldier and wanted to share it with the church. In 1861 a simple farmer from Virginia enlisted in the confederate army. He survived 3 years of battles but unfortunately in 1864 he was killed in a battle on the outskirts of Richmond. The burial party did their usual search and found this prayer in his pocket. I found this prayer most eloquent and profound.

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve.

I was made weak, that I might learn humbly how to obey.

I asked for health, that I might do greater things.

I was given infirmity, that I might do better things.

I asked for riches, that I might be happy.

I was given poverty, that I might be wise

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men.

I was given weakness, that I might feel the need for God.

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life.

I was given life, that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing that I asked for – but everything I hoped for.

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

I am, among all men, most richly blessed.

After service, please stay for refreshments and fellowship.
