

Proclaim Christ's Technicolored Fullness

Ephesians 3:1–13 • Journey Evangelical Church
February 6th, 2022 • Pastor Ted Kau

What we've learned so far in Ephesians, chs. 1–2

In Christ:

We are loved	(no longer an outsider)	1:3–14
We have resurrection power	(no longer hopeless)	1:15–23
We are saved	(no longer dead in our sins)	2:1–10
We have peace	(no more animosity)	2:11–22

God revealed an age-old, hidden mystery through Christ, vv. 1–6

Christ came to _____ as fellow heirs, members, partakers.

The Church is God's bold _____, vv. 7–13

Identity: humble minister ("diakonos" = running through _____), vv. 7–8a

Role: proclaim Christ to unbelievers & proclaim His manifold wisdom to angels, vv. 8b–10 manifold (polupoikilos)—many-colored, multi-faceted, diverse

God's wisdom—_____

Attitude: boldly, prayerfully, without losing heart, vv. 12–13

I respect and obey God's Word: <elders@journeyec.org>

- A. I'm thankful for the unsearchable riches of Christ that He's already given to us
- B. I understand I am God's mouthpiece to my friends and family.
- C. I will consider what my thoughts, words, and actions say to unbelievers and principalities
- D. I will humbly serve as a "dust runner" to proclaim Christ's technicolor fullness
- E. I am interested in baptism or transfer of membership

If you have a prayer request:

1. please email Deacon Anne and/or <elders@journeyec.org>.
2. after service, come forward to the steps on the left, a prayer team member will pray for you.
